The difference between the Schmallenberger Sauerland Card and SauerlandCard

All vacation guests staying one night or more in Schmallenberg and Eslohe receive the Schmallenberger Sauerland Card from their host. Compared to the regional SauerlandCard, which is issued in several places in the Sauerland, the Schmallenberger Sauerland Card offers an extended range of services.

Schmallenberger Sauerland Card

- » You can get the Schmallenberger Sauerland Card directly from your accommodation.
- » Each guest (including children from the age of 0) receives their own card.
- » The card includes free travel on local public transport and the hiking bus, free admission to the region's attractive museums, leisure destinations and swimming pools at unbeatably low admission prices as well as significant discounts on e-bike hire at the Schmallenberg Tourist Information Office.
- » All services of the SauerlandCard are also included.
- » The card is also available as a digital version for smartphones.

Sauerland Card

All services of the SauerlandCard, which is issued in various places in the Sauerland for overnight guests are also included in the Schmallenberger Sauerland Card:

- » Numerous other discounts on admission prices for various leisure activities throughout the Sauerland.
- » Free public transport from Schmallenberg via Winterberg to Medebach, from Marsberg to Arnsberg, from Willingen to the Möhnesee or from Hallenberg to Eslohe. - Please inform yourself in good time before starting your journey.

All the following information on the discounts for Card services is subject to change. All current discounts and exciting special offers can be found at:
